

Your childhood dreams come true

Your wedding should be devoted to love and romance in a setting that fulfils your desires and leaves you with a lifetime of memories.

Dockside and L'Aqua have developed a reputation for delivering amazing weddings and have always boasted a unique point of difference in comparison to other function venues: a stunning location overlooking the sparkling waters of Cockle Bay in Sydney.

With no expense spared, a multi-million-dollar renovation has now re-invented these two sparkling venues into what can best be described as a sublime conversion that fuses a sparkling waterside location with magnificent, chic, stunning new interiors by award-winning interior designer Michael McCann.

The venues' unique combination of panoramic views and elegant, cutting-edge design incorporating the latest in hi-tech appointments has resulted in locations that are, quite simply, flawless in design.

Dockside is Sydney's premier venue for large-scale weddings, capable of seating up to 600 guests. Or, through the versatility of new interior design, smaller wedding receptions can be held in a more intimate environment.

The newly renovated L'Aqua is the embodiment of secluded luxury, with two prestigious wedding function rooms to choose from. The more intimate Gold Room can seat up to 100 guests under the magnificent Swarovski crystal cherry blossom chandelier designed exclusively for L'Aqua, or the innovative design of the elegant Terrace Room which can seat 150 guests.

The Gold Room, featuring its own entrance and equally unique style, has been designed to celebrate all things glamorous; gold makes a signature statement.

The beauty of a total renovation is the ability to provide the latest in European AV event technology, allowing Dockside and L'Aqua the ability to tailor options of ambient lighting and colour washes to match a variety of wedding colour schemes.

Located on Pier One at Walsh Bay, the award-winning WatersEdge is another firm favourite for wedding parties. WatersEdge offers a unique ambience for a fairytale wedding, providing a stunning backdrop for wedding photos.

Whether you are dreaming of a grand formal wedding reception, a small intimate gathering or a cocktail celebration, Dockside Group places great attention on the culinary experience, and offers the highest level of service with renowned restaurant-quality fare for all tailored wedding day packages.

Dockside Group is set to become a one-stop shop for brides when it comes to a choice of stunning wedding venues, to help you design the wedding of your dreams.
